1	TOM BAXTER: A couple of things we want to talk to	1	ANDREW CONLEY: Uh-huh.	l
2	you about. Andrew, typically, when we investigate	2	TOM BAXTER: And it's not that anybody is trying to
3	things you could do me a favor and just turn around	3	mislead anyone, okay?
4	here a little bit.	4	ANDREM CONLEY: Uh-huh.	l
5	When we investigate things, there's always	5	TOM BAXTER: It's just a matter of, we didn't know.	ľ
6	follow-up questions. We like to clarify things, okay.	6	ANDREN CONLEY: Uh-huh.
7	And part of the reason that we like to do that is	7	TOM BAXTER: And maybe you didn't think to tell me
В	especially in your case. I think you've been pretty	8	or whatever.	j
9	honest, okay, and I think that that shows a positive thing	9	ANDREW CONLEY: Un-huh.	- [
10	about your character, okay. A lot of times what	10	TOM BAXTER: Or maybe you didn't think it was	Ī
11	happens and I want to tell you based on my experience.	11	significant.
12	And Glen can tell you here, you know, as you well know and	12	ANDREW CONLEY: Un-huh.
13	asked earlier, he's been a policeman for 30 years, and	13	TON BAXTER: Maybe you would think, you know, what
14	I've been one for 22.	14	was the big deal? I didn't see how would that be
15	Sometimes people, they're not always they	15	helpful? So that's what I'm here to talk to you about.
16	don't always completely tell the truth. And a lot of	16	It seems like there was a point in time where maybe you	1
17	times there's reasons for that, and a lot of times the	17	returned and there was some movement of your brother. I
18	reasons for that is fear. It's not necessarily because	18	want you to tell me about how that happened or what
19	they're a liar or they're a bad person or anything like	19	happened there.
20	that. It just means that it's something that happens to	20	ANDREW CONLEX: Could you specify a little more?	i
21	all of us, okay. And as a child I can still remember	21	GLEN POTTS: Well, let me start. You went back to
22	being a child and my parents confronting me about	22	the scene, you and Jared went back to the scene where your
23	something and I would lie.	23	brother was at/ correct?	1
24	You know, why typically would you lie about	24	ANDREW CONLEY: Uh-huh,	i
25	something even if the outcome of that wasn't bad? Why	25	GLEN POTTS: You said you went out there and you
